

general
physician
pc

We are a Patient-Centered, Provider-Driven large multi-specialty with medical office practices throughout the WNY community.

From Primary Care, Cardiology, Women's Health to Specialists, we are a professional team ready to care for your family and friends.

Employees are benefit eligible the first of the month following their start date. This includes medical, dental, vision, and much more. We also offer a generous PTO program and 401K plan. eHR or MEDENT experience a plus.

Now hiring for the following positions:

Registered Nurse – Triage

Assess and triage patient telephone calls and may have some floor responsibilities. This is full-time position, scheduled weekdays; no nights, weekends, or holidays; no on-call.

Licensed Practical Nurse

The Licensed Practical Nurse position is an office-based position in Buffalo, NY. The Licensed Practical Nurse should have the ability to triage and manage patient requests along with administer injections and immunizations. Be able to provide patient education consisting of Congestive Heart Failure, Diabetic Care. Compassionate and caring individual, able to understand and relate to patient's and physician's needs, committed to quality care.

Medical Assistant

The Medical Assistant will prepare patients to see physician/Nurse Practitioner's/Physician Assistants, located in WNY area. The Medical Assistant will check exam room supplies, greet and escort patients to exam rooms, prepare patients for exam and/or treatment by taking vital signs and record information. Will also perform spirometry, EKG, audiometry, use of glucometer and pulse oximetry. Will facilitate lab and/or diagnostic tests and related paperwork.

We continue to grow and invite you to join our dynamic team!

If this sounds like a career for you, we invite you to submit your resume and cover letter to Kgreen@gppconline.com.

<https://www.gppconline.com/about-us/careers>

Join us for our March OPEN HOUSE

March 19th • 3:00 pm - 6:00 pm

726 Exchange Street, Suite 710, Buffalo, NY 14210

Please bring updated resume and meet with a recruiter that day!